Your membership can be frozen for one or more calendar months (but cannot be frozen for part of any month). You may freeze your membership for a minimum of 1 up to a maximum of 2 months. You can notify us at any time that you would like to freeze your membership but we need a certain amount minimum notice. We must receive your notice by the 1st day of a month if you want to freeze your membership of the next following calendar month. Any notice received on or after the 2nd day of a calendar month will mean that the earliest that the freeze will be effective is from the end of the last day of the following calendar month. You will not be able to use your membership during any freeze period. Freezing your membership does not form part of your initial commitment period. Paid in full memberships can be frozen but does not form part of your commitment period and the freeze fee will be additional to the annual payment.

4.3 What happens if you change your mind?

You may notify us in writing that you wish to cancel your membership within 7 days starting on the day that you signed these terms. We will refund you any additional fees paid when joining other than that calendar month membership fees. Please refer to paragraph 8 for cancellation within 7 days. Please allow up to 28 days for any payments to be refunded.

5.0 Membership fees and dues

5.1 Membership and start up fees

The membership and start up fees stated in your Membership Application Form is payable by you when you sign these terms. The membership and start up fee will be non-refundable, except in certain circumstances set out in these terms. If your membership is terminated by you or us and you subsequently wish to rejoin, a new membership and start up fee applicable at that time will be payable by you.

5.2 Membership dues

As a member of Dolphin Fitness Club you are personally responsible for payment to us of the membership dues set in your Membership Application Form as they fall due for your 12, 6 or monthly initial commitment period and monthly thereafter except:

- A) In certain circumstances set out in these terms (such as if we seriously breach this contract in a way that entitles you to terminate your membership as set out in paragraph 8.2) or
B) If you are a certain type of fully paid corporate member. These will be set out in the particular corporate terms in place at the time of joining.

As a 12, 6 or monthly member, your membership dues are due on the whole of your 12, 6 or monthly initial commitment period except in the circumstances set out in these terms (such as if we seriously breach this contract in a way that entitles you to terminate your membership as set out in paragraph 8.2), in which case you may not be required to pay all of the balance of the membership dues for such 12, 6 or monthly initial commitment period. If you join in the course of a month your membership dues for that month will be calculated on a proportional basis according to the number of days remaining in that month membership dues vary depending on your category of membership. Memberships paid in full are non-refundable but transferable under discretion of management.

You may only pay your membership dues either:

- A) Monthly in advance by direct debit.
B) In advance for the whole of your initial commitment period by cash/credit or debit card. If the direct debit on the monthly application form which pays your membership dues is cancelled by you or the person paying it and your membership becomes overdue, we will refuse you entry into the club until a direct debit to pay your membership dues is reinstated and any overdue sums are paid in full. Where you have paid in advance for your membership you are required to complete a direct debit which will become active when your advanced payment no longer covers your monthly membership and your payments will continue by direct debit unless terminated in accordance with paragraph 8 below.

We will give at least 30 days' prior notice of any proposed membership dues change and the date from which the change becomes effective by writing to you at the contact address we have on our records. If you have a child membership please note that on or after the child turns 16 years of age their rate will be increased to a full adult membership applicable at the time. If you do not wish to accept an increase in your membership dues you may terminate your membership as set out in paragraph 8.0 below. If you do terminate the membership for this reason you must continue to pay your membership dues until the end of such notice period (at the rate current immediately prior to any proposed increase) if you do not terminate your membership, you will be required to pay any revised membership dues from the date from which the change becomes effective and your direct debit payment will be amended accordingly. If your membership is terminated for any reason by you or us and you subsequently rejoin the club, you will be charged the membership and start up fees applicable at the current rate at the time you rejoin. From time to time we may need to adjust the availability of certain facilities on a temporary basis including for the purposes of cleaning, refurbishments, repairs, upgrades, maintenance, and special functions. If any of the facilities is not available for more than 30 consecutive days, you can ask us in writing for a credit against your membership dues proportional to the period of unavailability if you pay monthly, or an extension to your 12, 6 or 1 month initial commitment period proportional to the period of unavailability if you pay annually.

We reserve the right to refuse a membership transfer should it not meet all our criteria.

7.0 Can you change your membership to another category?

Yes, you can change the category of your membership, this is subject to a new 12 or 6 month commitment term effective from the date your change is effective from. No refund is available for annual membership if you wish to change to a lower rate category membership. You can not change a 12 month membership to a monthly rolling membership. Upgrades can be made with immediate effect but for downgrades we require notice by the 1st of the month in order for changes to be effective from the next following calendar month, any notice received on or after the 2nd day of a calendar month will mean that the earliest that the downgrade will be effective is from the end of the last day of the following calendar month.
